

Xifeng Zhang, M.D., Ph.D.
Director of orthopedic physician
Department of orthopedic
PLA general hospital (301 hospital)
China

The vice director of MISS in CMDA, vice chairman of spinal endoscopy group in CPAM. Major in minimal invasive spinal surgery for more than 20 years, and specialize in spinal endoscopic surgery. The goal and type of surgery are minimal invasive, easy and various operation according to the patients, less time, less complication.

Have explored and developed the treatment of lumbar degenerative disease, spinal infection, spinal tuberculosis, spinal tumor, spinal deformity by minimal invasive methods. Successfully treated about 4000 cases with lumbar degenerative disease since 2003 by spinal endoscopic surgery, and about 1000 cases with spinal infection(including spinal tuberculosis). The most surgeries operated in one day were up to 17cases(PELD).

One of pioneers who attempted to provide various medical service by internet. One of the most popular doctors in the internet, and won the most-viewed online(collective hits 13.000.000, zhangxifeng.haodf.com) in "Good doctor" the biggest doctor-patient communication Platform. And also the moderator of "lilac garden" the biggest E-education Platform in China.